

"77"

Humphreys' Seventy-Seven
Famous Remedy for Colds &

GRIP

Grip, like malaria, assumes many forms, so that "when Grip prevails everything is Grip."

"Seventy-seven," taken early, knocks it out promptly.

Taken during its prevalence, preoccupies the system and prevents its invasion.

Taken during an attack, it lightens, shortens and ultimately cures.

"Seventy-seven" breaks up hard, stubborn Colds that cling.

Handy to carry. Fits the vest pocket. All drug stores, 25c.

Humphreys' Homeo. Medicine Co., Cor. William and Ann Streets, New York.

Concord Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Concord, Va., March 12.—Mrs. J. A. Price left Tuesday for Petersburg, where she will spend a week visiting relatives.

Miss Ella Schwartz, one of our private school teachers, spent last Saturday and Sunday with her home folks at Big Island.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Price, of Roanoke, were visitors to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Price Sunday last. Mrs. Price remains the week on a visit.

J. S. Stratton returned Tuesday after a visit to relatives in Kentucky. Miss Lizzie Staples was the guest of friends in Lynchburg a few days first of the week.

Mrs. Iona Staples, formerly of this place, a week-end guest of Mrs. G. D. Patterson.

Mrs. J. D. Pool and niece, Miss Canada, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday last with the former's sister, Mrs. Mandy Canada.

Andy Alvis, who has been very sick for the last month, is not much better this week, and is still in doors.

Mrs. Virginia Hillard recently returned after visiting relatives in Lynchburg.

Beverly Drinkard, of Lynchburg, spent Sunday with his family, who live near here.

Mrs. Mamie Rice and daughter, Miss Lizzie, who have been on an extended visit to relatives, Marshall Street, Richmond, returned last Saturday.

Elon College Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Elon College, N. C., March 12.—Mrs. J. B. D. Rhodes, of Harrisonburg, Va., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Moffitt, this week.

Mrs. P. H. Fleming, of Burlington, sister of Mrs. Rhodes, also visited at the Moffitt home this week.

The business board of the State Christian Endeavor Convention met in High Point last Saturday and arranged a program for the approaching State convention, which is to meet in that city, April 22-24 inclusive.

The convention will meet with the Methodist Protestant Church, of High Point, of which Rev. A. C. Dixon, is pastor.

President Moffitt has sufficiently recovered from the grip to be at his office most of the day during the past week. He is still weak and not yet physically able to resume active field work in connection with raising of the proposed endowment, about $15,000, of which he has already raised $10,000.

He is very much encouraged over the outlook.

Ashland Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Ashland, Va., March 12.—Bruce Palmer, of Richmond, was the guest of Charles Pitts last Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander Brown and children have returned to Richmond after a visit to Mrs. Hall Carter.

Miss Mary Overton Hlaw has returned to Dundee.

R. Bailey Atwell is in Columbus, O., on business.

Mr. Mary Butler was the recent guest of Miss Marjorie Chisolm.

Miss Marjorie Elliott has returned home after a visit to Miss Eleanor Patterson, in Richmond.

Mrs. Morgan Shepherd visited friends in Richmond this week.

Mrs. Warren has returned to her home in Harrisonburg, after visiting her son, Rice Warren.

Frank Vaughan, who has been visiting his mother, Mrs. L. N. Vaughan, has returned to Lexington, Ky.

Miss Julia Weisiger was the weekend guest of Mrs. John Owen in Wakefield.

Stuart Leake and Walter Taylor were recent guests of Misses Leake.

Miss Virginia Haw has returned to West Point.

Miss Grayson Hoofnagle has returned to Lynchburg, after a delightful visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hoofnagle.

Mrs. Annan Cross is visiting relatives in Richmond.

On Friday afternoon the young women of Ashland gave a delightful tea and "shower" at the home of Mrs. C. C. Potts, in honor of Miss Matilda Midyette, whose wedding to Walter Jones takes place on next Wednesday.

Among those who called were Misses Anne Hunter, Julia Weisiger, May Baldwin, Katherine Kent, Ethel Howard, Senbrook Midyette, Margaret Tucker, Frances Lancaster, Caroline Midyette, Margaret Wickman, Anne Macon Potts, Mary Austin Haw, Stuart Blanton, Estelle Blanton, Grace Vest, Margaret Chisolm, Augusta Nixon, Mesdames James Hunter, Morgan Shepherd, Charles Bridges, Weldon Blanton, Bernard Lipscomb, I. F. Lewis.

The Young Women's Literary Society met on Thursday afternoon. A very interesting paper on "Delft, Its Pottery and Crafts," was read by Miss Mary Newman Jones. Miss Matilda Midyette discussed current events.

Mrs. James Hunter, Miss Caroline Midyette and Stuart Blanton served tea. The invited guests were Misses Matilda Baskerville, of Richmond; Mary Overton Haw, of Hanover, and Miss Margaret Chisolm, of Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Lathrop, Miss Fletcher and Miss Genevieve Fletcher, of Warrenton, were guests of Mrs. Bernard Lipscomb on Wednesday.

Danville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., March 12.—Miss Gertrude Withers has been appointed maid of honor for the Fifth District at the twentieth annual reunion of United Confederate Veterans, which will be held at Mobile, Ala., on April 26, 27 and 28. She is a popular and accomplished young woman, and will make a most acceptable maid of honor.

She is the daughter of the late Colonel E. B. Withers, a gallant and distinguished Confederate officer. Miss Mahal Robinson has been made sponsor to the reunion, and is well qualified for the honor conferred upon her. She is a very attractive and popular young woman, and is a daughter of Dr. W. L. Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ira Pritchett have returned from Hot Springs, Ark. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lyles, of Spotsylvania, S. C., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Crews, Jefferson Street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Jamieson Hickey have returned to Richmond, after several weeks' visit to Danville.

Robert H. Maury is spending several weeks at "Meadowood," the county estate of Mrs. Robert Wooding, near Chick Level, Va.

Miss Pattie Douthat is spending several weeks in Summerville, S. C.

Miss Milton M. Herman, of Columbia University, New York City, spent the week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Herman.

Miss Rosa Bass has returned from Roanoke.

Miss Gertrude Herman, of the Woman's College, Lynchburg, spent several days here this week, the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Herman.

Miss Mary Cabell Wooding has returned from a delightful visit to Miss Ray Smith, in Danville.

Miss Carroll Coleman, of Winston, N. C., who has been visiting Miss Bessie Carter, has returned home.

Mrs. Gilliam and Miss Lela Reagan Kimball, of Norfolk, are visiting Mrs. W. O. Siskin.

Mrs. W. G. Catlin returned to Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday.

Mrs. Charles Raine has returned from an extended visit to Savannah, Black Shear, Ga., and Lynchburg.

Miss Emma Leas, of Columbia University, New York City, is the guest of friends in Lynchburg.

Miss Sallie Raine, who has been the guest of her sister, in Lynchburg, has returned home.

Mrs. Beverly Ruffin and children, of Charles City county, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home.

V. M. I. Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lexington, Va., March 12.—H. T. Bryan, of Farnboro, N. C., was a visitor at the V. M. I. this week and entered his son, H. T. Bryan, Jr., as a cadet in the fourth class.

Captain H. A. Jacob, a graduate of '09, who is now a professor in the University of Maryland, was the guest of friends in Lynchburg.

Miss Sallie Raine, who has been the guest of her sister, in Lynchburg, has returned home.

Mrs. Beverly Ruffin and children, of Charles City county, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home.

Dr. Reid White, surgeon of the V. M. I., is spending a few days in Philadelphia. During his absence, Dr. J. H. Laird, the former surgeon, is filling his office.

The weather has been most favorable the past week for military exercises on the parade ground. Butts manual, company and extended order drills have been practiced. For the present, on Wednesday afternoon, instead of the usual parade, an exhibition of Butts manual drill will be given.

A fire brigade has been organized, with Captain R. F. Wagner as fire marshal. Drills will be held by order of the commandant, and unexpected calls be given.

Herbert White, of Charlottesville, Va., the baseball coach for the season of 1910, has arrived, and is selecting his team preparatory to the season of coaching before the games begin.

Farmville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Farmville, Va., March 12.—Miss Mollie Venable, who has been a guest of Mrs. Charles A. Price, has returned to her home near Prospect. Mrs. R. B. Berkeley accompanied her home for a short visit.

Mr. Vaden, cashier of the First National Bank, visited his old friends at Stony Creek, during the week.

Miss Frankie McKinnon has returned from her visit to Richmond, Washington and New York.

Henry T. Scott is home from Richmond, being on the sick list.

Dr. J. J. Jamieson, president of the State Female Normal School, has been in Richmond nearly all of this week in the interest of that institution.

Berryville Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Berryville, Va., March 12.—Rev. Edward Wall, spent Monday visiting in Frederick, Md.

E. G. Colner has been in New York several days this week.

Miss Ellen Bess has entered Frederick Female College, Frederick, Md., for the spring term.

Miss Rebecca Roy, who has been visiting Mrs. A. J. Warhan, has returned to Front Royal.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton have returned from a visit to Abingdon.

Miss Dora Roy, who has been spending the winter at Jacob Wax-

This 36x72 All Wool

Smyrna
Rug

Worth $4.00,

sold for

5c

with a purchase of $25.00 worth of goods.

This Fine Solid Oak

Rocker

Worth $5.00,

sold for

5c

with a purchase of $25.00 worth of goods.

New Method
Gas Range

Guaranteed to save you 25 per cent. in gas bills. Do not be persuaded to buy any other until you have had the New Method Gas Range demonstrated to you, then there will be no question about which gas range you will buy. Hundreds of testimonials as to their good qualities.

$10.95 Buys
This $18.00
Dining Table

Solid oak and massive pedestal base, polished. Extends to 6 feet, and would cost you elsewhere $20.00.

The Store That Saves You Money

THE BUSY STORE—Busy because we exert every effort to deserve to be busy. Thrifty buyers appreciate the fact that our underselling prices are the lowest prices quoted on Dependable Furniture. They know that everything that we sell is personally guaranteed to give satisfaction. They realize that our Liberal Credit terms are just and equitable—that they are arranged for the purchaser's convenience.

SPECIAL PREMIUM OFFER

It is only due to our perfect system that we are able to give our customers such expensive premiums as we are showing. These household necessities we are glad to give for 5c with each bill of goods. This offer holds good until June 30th.

An Elegant
Chase Leather
Couch
Worth $20.00,
sold for 5c

with a purchase of $150 worth of goods.

A Prettily Decorated
100 Piece
Dinner Set
Worth $15.00,
sold for 5c

with a purchase of $100 worth of goods.

A Beautiful Birch-Mahogany
Ladies' Desk
Worth $7.00,
sold for 5c

with a purchase of $50 worth of goods.

This Solid Oak

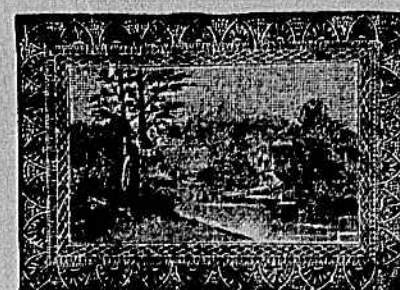

Chiffonier

Worth $6.50,

sold for

5c

with a purchase of $50 worth of goods.

This Beautiful Picture

Worth $1.50, sold for

5c

With a purchase of $10.00 worth of goods.

1910
Go-Carts
And
CarriagesAll styles and prices.
$1.25 Buys a Neat Folding Go-Cart; sells elsewhere for $2.50.
$3.95 Buys a new style "One Motion" Collapsible Go-Cart; sells elsewhere for $7.00.
Our line comprises all the new models, prettier than ever before, and so economically priced.$24.75
Buys This Massive
$35.00
Sideboard

Solid quarter sawed oak and highly polished, heavy standards and large size, french bevel mirror. An exceptional value. Can't be duplicated elsewhere for less than $40.00.

NEW MATTINGS

All the newest effects in Japan and China Mattings are here. Hundreds of patterns to select from. Prices range from 15c to 35c the yard.

Pettit and Company
FOUSHEE and BROAD STS

Follow The Crowds Tomorrow to This Big Store.

South Boston Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] South Boston, Va., March 12.—The young women of the Helping Hand Society of the Baptist Church at this place held a delightful social to its honorary members on Monday evening.

The exercises consisted of a reading by Miss Frances Ingram, vocal solo, Mrs. P. C. Watkins, Jr., with Mrs. Robert Craddock at the piano; recitation, Miss Bessie Lawson; solo, Miss Sue Neal; reading, Miss Sue Williamson, and short talks by Robert East and Rev. P. A. Anthony. After the program was rendered, delicious refreshments were served by the fair maidens.

On Tuesday evening, in the lecture-room of the Baptist Church, the W. C. T. U. celebrated red-letter day, the birth of Miss Frances E. Willard, and also gave a pleasant social to its honorary members.

Chocoma Tribe, No. 45, Improved Order of Red Men, was instituted in the 1. O. F. Hall at this place Wednesday night. The tribe starts off with thirty-nine enrolled charter members, and bids fair to progress rapidly. It will meet every Wednesday evening.

Two degree teams, numbering forty-five chiefs, headed by P. E. Booth, of Chickasaw and Poquotton Tribes, from the hunting grounds of Danville, conferred the secret work, and inducted the candidates into the mysteries of the tribe. The delegation was met at the Southern depot by a special committee, and escorted to the hotel for supper. The following chiefs were elected for the new tribe for the ensuing term: Sachem, W. H. Purcell; Junior Sachem, R. W. Weatherford; Senior Sachem, R. W. Bane; Prophet, J. G. Patterson; Chief of Records, Charles B. Lovelace; Keeper of Wampum, H. W. Weatherford.

Crewe Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Crewe, Va., March 12.—Miss Grace Coleman, of Roanoke, who has been visiting Mrs. W. T. Wilson, left for her home Sunday.

Mrs. W. T. Bradshaw will leave Monday for Hot Springs.

Miss Lottie May Hunt, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Darrell Saunders, has left for her home in Richmond.

Miss Mattie Ward, of Suffolk, spent the past week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Ward.

Mrs. Henry Chapell, late of Burkeville, but now of Richmond, spent the past week with Mrs. J. H. Hines.

Miss Arreatha Willis, of Cape Charles, is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Agnew Harper.

Mrs. Annie Horner and daughter, Miss Eula Horner, have returned from a visit to relatives in Lewisburg, N. C.

Mrs. Nannie Morton and daughter, Miss Carrie Morton, of Farmville, are visiting Mrs. Samuel Nicholson and Mrs. W. F. Watkins.

Rev. Mr. Bain, the newly elected pastor of the Pryor Memorial and Burkeville Church, is expected here this week.

Mrs. T. M. Baird and little son, Thompson, are visiting Mrs. Baird's parents, in Christiansburg.

Mrs. Early Brown is at St. Luke's in Richmond to be treated for appendicitis.

Mrs. M. Rubin, of Charlottesville, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Harry Mach.

Willie Vaughan, who has been sick for several weeks, is out again.

West Point Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] West Point, Va., March 12.—Rev. T. A. Hale completed the first year as pastor of the West Point Baptist Church last Sunday. Later in the week the church and outside friends replenished the pantry with all kinds of good and useful things.

James O'Connor and grandson, Thos. Humphrey, were in Washington, D. C., several days, attending the golden jubilee, given in honor of Mr. O'Connor's cousin, Sister Catherine Shough, this being the fiftieth anniversary at the convent in that city.

Harvey Brooks, West Point's professional baseball artist, who signed a contract with the Richmond team of the State League, for the coming season, will leave shortly to begin practice.

Rev. Charles Yaeger, of Staunton, who spent the winter with her parents, Dr. W. C. Nunn here, left on Monday for her home in Staunton, thence she will move to her new home in Alexandria.

Farmers and truckers living in and around West Point, on Thursday heard from Commissioner of Agriculture, Keiser, Professors Higgs and Johnson, of the Agricultural Experiment Station. Owing to some confusion of dates, the crowd was not as large as expected. The party spent several hours at Lester Manor and Tunstall's yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grubbs, who have recently moved from Norfolk, have bought the parsonage at Shackelfords, in which they will live.

Miss Mary Gatwood is the guest of Mr. Samuel J. Bland. Later she will visit her sister, Mrs. Emmerson Smith, at "Woodstock," in Middlesex county.

Rev. Mr. Halslip, formerly of Stuart, Va., has accepted a call and will preach his first sermon at Olivet Baptist Church on Sunday.

Professor and Mrs. Wilton Thurston, who spent the winter in Chase City, returned to their home in Little Plymouth.

Miss Mary Deamead has just returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Richmond.

Pocahontas Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Pocahontas, Va., March 12.—Mrs. H. N. Leedy, of Kimball, W. Va., who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. Hunter Calloway, on Centre Street, left for her home Monday.

Miss Hydon, of Bramwell, W. Va., was the guest of friends in the city Tuesday.

J. Robinson Phelps, of Switchback, W. Va., was in the city Monday.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Lucy Morton, daughter of Jacob William Morton, of Keyville, Va., to Edward Wren Huggins, a prominent young lawyer of this place, to take place Wednesday evening, March 16, 1910, in Keyville.

Mrs. S. C. Morton, of South Boston, visited relatives here last week.

Chase City Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chase City, Va., March 12.—A. A. Brookes and Mrs. J. R. Pruden are in the Northern cities this week.

H. Kunath, of Kunath, was here a few days ago.

Colonel and Mrs. W. T. Hughes, who have been visiting some of the Northern cities, returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gehegan, who recently toured the Southern and Western States for three weeks, returned home a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Jordan left last Tuesday for West Point and Baltimore, where they will remain some days.

J. V. Nichols, of Purcellville, after spending a few days with relatives here, returned home last Saturday.

Miss Annie Farris returned from Lynchburg county this week, where she has been the guest of relatives.

E. W. Huggins spent this week in Lynchburg and Charlotte counties.

C. C. Hatchett, of Richwood, was a visitor here this week.

R. H. Beasley, of South Boston, visited his sons, R. P. and E. T. Beasley, last Saturday and Sunday.

Invitations have been received here to the marriage of Miss Lucy Morton, daughter of Jacob William Morton, of Keyville, Va., to Edward Wren Huggins, a prominent young lawyer of this place, to take place Wednesday evening, March 16, 1910, in Keyville.

Mrs. S. C. Morton, of South Boston, visited relatives here last week.

Spring Millinery Opening

Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday,
March 15, 16 and 17

Special display of Parisian ideas in Pattern Hats. The celebrated "Fiskhats," and be sure to see the famous Chicago Frankel Frank Hats.

Mrs. M. L. Wortham

If you want prompt relief from Stomach and Kidney Ills, you will keep a bottle of the Bitters handy. It is for Headache, Poor Appetite, Indigestion, Costiveness, Colds, Grippe and Malaria. Try it to-day.

W. H. R. W. FOU, of the Fourth North Carolina District, who is now living in Washington during the session of Congress, of which her husband is a member.

Insist Upon This Make

American Lady

Corset Perfection

Corset perfection is exemplified in the highest degree in the new models of the celebrated

American Lady

CORSETS

Every dictate of fashion is embodied in these new designs, the modish low bust, the long hip and back, the slight waist curve. Materials and trimmings are richer and daintier than ever before, and the workmanship is all that skilled hand labor can produce.

Wear an American Lady Corset and you have all that is best in corsetry.

Model 504 (like cut), Slender and medium figures, fashionable low bust, very long hip and back.

Coutil, white, 18-28 $5.00

Model 333, Same design.

Batiste, white, 18-30 $3.00

Model 215, Same design.

Batiste, white, 18-30 $2.00

Model 159, Same design.

Batiste, white, 18-30 $1.50

Other New Models $1 to $5.

Ask your merchant. Be fitted to just the right model for your individual figure and obtain the correct foundation for your gown.

American Lady Corset Co.

New York Detroit Chicago Paris